Remembering Olivia

O L I V I A

Olivia was sent to me to be my perfect companion and good buddy. She performed her job extremely well. She extended her mission to family, friends, and neighbors. She touched many hearts when we would "visit" the library and senior residences. She brightened the day of our mailman. Despite having me as a partner, at 8 1/2, Olivia also managed to earn a CD. Life with Olivia, my storybook dog, was the way it should be with a companion animal. As kindred spirits, our favorite times together were spent in the serenity of our yard on warm, sunny days. She would gently put her paw (always the left) in my lap as we sat side by side on the patio and pretty much just watched the world go by.

They say a dog's love is unconditional. I think that applies to a human's love for her dog, too. I have loved all of my dogs with all of my heart and soul. What distinguishes my love for Olivia is how much I LIKED her. Everything about her. Fly away, Olivia, fly away.

PRESIDENT'S REPORT

May! There is so much that we can look forward to in May. Warmer weather and flowers would be two of Mother Nature's promises. While Mother Nature hasn't been cooperative so far, however, there is always hope.

If you read the President's Report on a regular basis you have probably noticed that I like to thank members. This month I would like to Thank Darlene and John Barnard for coordinating the TD/TDX Tracking Tests that took place on April 22. Darlene and John are dedicated to tracking so if you ever want to participate, they would welcome you. I would also like to Thank Laura Setar, Cheri Nicholas, and Joan Mazat for their work in organizing the April 3 and May 1 Correction Matches. It is because of the commitment of all of these members that GABOC continues to succeed.

Bad News/Good News. The bad news is that once again we have to say good bye to a long-time GABOC instructor. Dawn Parison, who has been an instructor at GABOC since 1998 has decided to take a break from teaching the 6:45 Beginner Class. Last month when I reported that Dave Parison was no longer going to instruct the 6:45 Novice II Class and was taking a break, I guess I made it sound like Dave was totally walking away from GABOC. I apologize for giving that impression. The good news is that both Dave and Dawn are just taking a much-needed break from the Monday-night instruction rings. They are both remaining on as GABOC members and will return to Monday nights at GABOC in the near future. Both Dave and Dawn have not only touched the lives at GABOC but have also touched the lives of countless people in the training community. We are going to feel the loss. It won't be the same not to see them training their dogs or instructing others every Monday. So many members of GABOC look forward to the day when Dave and Dawn rejoin the Monday-night activities.

Thank You to Nancy Gegenheimer for assisting Dawn in the Beginner Class for the past several months. Nancy has decided that she, too, needs a break and will not be returning to training. Nancy did a fantastic job and will be missed. There is Good News, however. Thank you to Francis Soresi and Tom Stephenson for volunteering to instruct the 6:45 Beginner Class which began this past Monday, April 30. Both Francis and Tom have been around training rings for years. They will bring a great deal of knowledge to our beginner families.

Have you ever worked the booth at "Tails on the Trails" at the Arboretum? If you have not, you are missing out on a fun experience. Saturday, May 5, GABOC will once again be represented. For the past several years, Cheri Nicholas has been arranging for GABOC to be present in May and September. It's a great way to enjoy the beauty of the Arboretum, spend time with your dog, talk to people about their dogs, and distribute information about GABOC. If you are available, you can sign up for one of three two-hour intervals: 10:00-12:00, 12:00-2:00, and 2:00-4:00. Email Cheri at cherindean@gmail.com and let her know you would be willing to work at the GABOC booth.

FIRST-EVER GABOC CALENDAR. I would like to Thank Karen Heitz for coming up with the idea of producing a 2019 GABOC CALENDAR featuring pictures of members' dogs. Karen, and her committee--Karen Schlipf, Bob Melka, and Joyce Clarke--would like to invite you to start sending in your photos. For details, see this issue of BARKS and watch for my email blast.

HELP WANTED! A Table Person is needed to meet, greet, and help people sign in for the drop-in classes from 6:00-6:45 at Monday-night training. If interested, contact me at jaclarke134@comcast.net. Don't forget--you get to train free!

Member Highlight~ Cris Mazza

My name is Cris Mazza. I'm a professor of creative writing at the University of Illinois at Chicago. That's only pertinent to my dog training because back in 1983, when I got my first purebred dog, I decided to train and show in obedience as a means of experiencing some success in the years before I became a published novelist. Well, I didn't finish my first Obedience Trial Champion until I had three books already published! So, in all, since 1983, I have had 18 books published, and finished five OTCHs plus two additional UD's – and hopefully one more UD sometime this year. My current dog is a golden retriever named "Billie" who I didn't get until she was almost 6 years old. She was basically untrained, and I started her with puppy techniques. This has been one of my most rewarding training experiences, as she should be ready to try for her UD in the fall when she is 9 years old. I recently acquired another golden who is also not a puppy. Chrome is 3-1/2 and has joined our "wayward home for troubled dogs." Chrome is the nephew of and Billie is the daughter of my last OTCH Golden, Tommy, who was a GRCA "outstanding sire," with at least 12 OTCH offspring. The photos here are me and Tommy.

I moved to Illinois from California in 1993, but didn't join Glenbard until 2 years ago. I was impressed with how friendly all the "Glenbard folks" are at trials, so I decided to join the club. The past two years I have administered the pre-trial match entries, and I train during the early session on Tuesdays about once a month. Both clubs I'm in (Glenbard and Fox Valley) are the last two "fairground clubs" around here, and it impresses me what a club and club members can accomplish with one fairground building once a week.

EDITOR'S NOTE

BROUGHT TO YOU BY
SNOOPY AND WOODSTOCK

Linkville's Raging Ball of Wild Fur, CGC
Kenai

You are my sun, my moon & stars. I wish I could take credit for the incredible being you are but I did very little and God did all the rest.

I realize that maybe I have asked too much of you in the past and not realized you needed more from me. You have always done everything I have ever asked of you if it has been within your abilities to do so. I'm sorry it took me a little longer to recognize you needed me a little more.

For being the kind, caring, and gentle soul you are.....you have the most amazing inner strength. I have come to realize over my lifetime that my animals come into my life for a reason. I am not usually privy to the reason in the beginning, and I don't always figure it out when they leave. But I firmly believe they are sent for a reason and when their work is done it's time for them to move on. I am so extremely blessed that it hasn't been your time yet.

You were born to be a Therapy Dog. And thankfully you were born to be mine. I have seen you work your magic when visiting a hospice patient, calming a child in the hospital, and letting a group of college students pet you to the point where I couldn't see you!! But not once did you refuse. You learned very early to turn your back to someone as soon as you met them so they had the most space to spend time petting you. I have seen you help young children hopefully remember the day their parent died with more peace than sadness. I have seen you love and snuggle the hospital and hospice staff to help them on a difficult day.

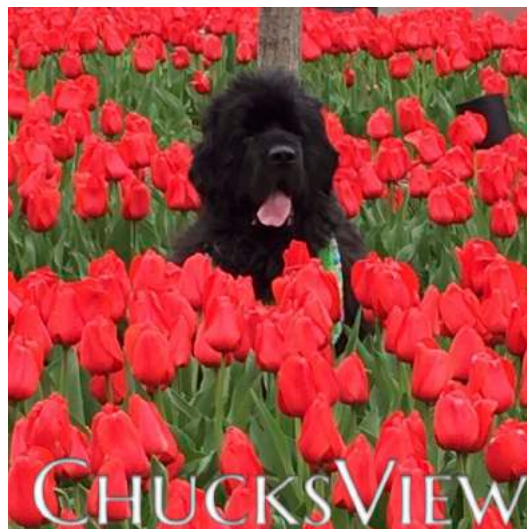

You are one of the most amazing of all creatures. And yet you are "just" a dog. Four paws and a whole lotta fur.
Love, your Human
